Council Actions: October– December 2020

- ◆ Sponsored a resolution urging Memphis Area Transit Authority to temporarily waive all transit fares on Election Day 2020.
- ◆ Sponsored a resolution requiring MWBE reports on all fiscal-based requests from the City of Memphis and quasi-governmental agencies seeking approval by the Memphis City Council.
- ◆ Sponsored a resolution recognizing the career and contributions of Steve Lockwood upon his retirement from the Frayser CDC.
- ◆ Sponsored a follow-up resolution requesting the inclusion of MWBE reporting on City Council Item Routing Sheets for the purpose of ensuring the inclusion of MWBE, MBE, and WBE percentages on documents related to fiscal-based requests from the City of Memphis and quasi-governmental agencies seeking approval by the Memphis City Council.
- ◆ Sponsored a resolution extending the City Council Renaming Commission term three months from July 21, 2021 to October 21, 2021 to grant the advisory committee 90 additional days to continue its work toward inclusivity in public street, park, and place naming.
- ◆ Co-sponsored a resolution to distribute the revenue generated from the development of parking and other mobility projects by the Downtown Mobility Authority among all City Council districts. Note: the resolution also requests the administration to determine the feasibility of doing so.
